

Donor Privacy Policy

At Beyond Support Foundation, we hold in the highest regard the privacy of our donors. This policy delineates how we safeguard donor information, what data we keep confidential, and how we utilize donor information. The implementation of this Donor Privacy Policy is rooted in our commitment to preserving trust and confidence in our organization while upholding the privacy of our generous supporters

Collection and Use of Donor Information:

1.1. We collect and maintain only the necessary and pertinent donor information required to fulfill our mission, issue tax receipts, provide acknowledgments, and keep donors informed about our activities.

1.2. The information we collect may encompass the donor's name, contact details, donation history, and any other information voluntarily provided.

1.3. Donor information is exclusively used for internal purposes and will not be shared, sold, or rented to third parties without the explicit consent of the donor, except as mandated by law.

Confidentiality and Security of Donor Information:

2.1. All donor information will be held in strict confidence and accessed only by authorized personnel responsible for donor relations, fundraising, or financial administration.

2.2. We have established appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial safeguards to protect donor information from unauthorized access, loss, or misuse.

2.3. Donor information will be securely stored and retained only for the duration necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this policy or as required by law.

Donor Recognition:

3.1. We respect the preferences of our donors regarding public recognition and will honor any requests for anonymity or non-disclosure.

3.2. With the explicit consent of the donor, we may publicly acknowledge and express our gratitude for their support through various channels such as newsletters, annual reports, websites, or social media. However, specific gift amounts will not be disclosed without explicit permission

Opt-Out and Donor Communications:

- 4.1. Donors have the right to opt out of receiving future communications from our organization.
- 4.2. We provide clear and convenient methods for donors to manage their communication preferences, such as opting out of email newsletters or mailing lists.
- 4.3. We respect donor preferences and will promptly update our records to reflect any requested changes.

Legal Compliance:

- 5.1. Our organization complies with all applicable laws and regulations concerning the collection, use, and protection of donor information, including data privacy and anti-spam legislation.
- 5.2. In the event of a legal requirement, we may disclose donor information to comply with law enforcement requests, court orders, or other legal processes.

Policy Review and Updates:

- 6.1. Any updates to this policy will be communicated through our website or other appropriate means.
- 6.2. By implementing this Donor Privacy Policy, we affirm our unwavering commitment to safeguarding the privacy of our donors. We recognize the paramount importance of donor trust and continually strive to uphold the highest standards of privacy and data security. If you have any questions or concerns regarding this policy or the handling of your donor information, please do not hesitate to contact us directly
